

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Yesterday and To-day.

Written Specially for The Times-Dispatch
But yesterday, the dreary winter's rain, Which awayed the forest trees, beat furiously
Against the shelter of my window pane,
And sent the dead leaves whirling madly by.

To-day I hear the warble of a thrush,
Singing a love-song to its ingard mate,
The liquid song-notes from his full throat gush,
Now loud and clear, now low and passionate.

The south wind blows its breath upon my brow,
And bids my heart forget the winter's rain.
It whispers to my waiting spirit now That Spring and Hope have come to earth again.

GOOD NIGHT.

By SHELLEY.

Other selections from Shelley, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

GOOD-NIGHT? Ah! no; the hour is ill Which severs those it should unite;
Let us remain together still,
Then it will be good night.

How can I call the lone night good,
Though thy sweet voice within my flight?
Be not said, thought, understood,
That it will be good night.

To hearts which near each other move
From evening close to morning light,
The night is good; because, my love,
They never say good-night.

The meeting was called to order upon the design and inscription of a memorial tablet to be placed by the members of the circle in the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital to the founder of the hospital, Miss Rebekah Peterkin. Mrs. George T.
King, the first secretary of the circle, originated the idea of the memorial, the design of which is to be a heart-shaped shield in brass, mounted upon antique oak. The King's Daughters' cross will appear on the upper part of the shield, which is to be placed in the main hall of the hospital and unveiled at Easter, if possible. The shield will bear the following inscription:

IN MEMORIAM.

To the glory of God and in memory of Rebekah Peterkin, founder of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital, Feb.
13, 1839. She fell asleep July 28, 1891, in the forty-first year of her age. Her works do follow her.

"Then give me thanks, O Lord, for her,
Gone in Thy faith and fear;
For good she wrought, for seed she sowed
And left to ripen here."

Erected by the Rebekah Peterkin Circle of the King's Daughters.
After the business of the afternoon was over the circle was charmingly enter-refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. H. Lee Lor-

"Thirteen" Club Entertains.

breathes terror into the heart of the su-

Thirteen men walked single file under a ladder, drew papers numbered up to thirteen, broke tiny mirrors, turned over salt stands, sat under opened umbrellas, ate ices from miniature coffins, and, in general, defied every known superstition.
The decorations carried out the idea of the gruesome, tombstones, skulls, coffins and black bordered napkins being used.
To cap the climax, a bird was loosed during the dinner to flutter about the room at will.

MRS. DUKE ALLOWED FEES FOR COUNSEL

Husband Alleges That He Had Reason to Doubt Wife's Fidelity.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 21.—An affidavit by James B. Duke, the president of the American Tobacco Company, in support of his suit for divorce from his wife, Lillian M. Duke, was read by Mr. Duke's counsel today in a hearing on the case before Vice-Chancellor Pitney, in Jersey City. Mr. Duke's counsel appeared in opposition to Mrs. Duke's application for counsel fees.
Mr. Duke in his affidavit declared that he did not leave his wife until he became suspicious of her fidelity. He declared that his fortune amounts to $60, 000,000, but admitted it was $10,000,000.
He asserted that he gave Mrs. Duke a house in West 81st-street, this city, security worth $15,000, valuable jewelry and funds to pay the interest on a mortgage on her house. He declared that his suspicions were aroused by finding a telegram signed "John," and that he had his wife watched by detectives.
He denied the charges made by his wife regarding Mary Smith, an employee of Mr. Duke's New Jersey residence, and declared that his wife is defending the suit only in the hope of securing a good financial settlement.
Vice-Chancellor Pitney allowed Mrs.
Duke counsel fees amounting to $3,000.

United States battleship "Virginia," met for organization in the Governor's office yesterday at noon. The commission consists of the Governor, Attorney-General, Adjutant-General, President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates. Governor Swanson was elected president of the commission and Ad-by noon of April 21st. The amount set apart for this purpose, by the commis-

Persons desiring information in regard to the matter should make application to the secretary of the commission. The Colonial Dames of America in Virginia will present to the battleship certain sil-do not desire to be duplicated in the design submitted to them. General smiths concerning the matter.

Already several jewelers, here in Rich-intentions to submit designs, and have
